CORTESE ENDORSES MINH DUONG FOR CITY COUNCIL

San Jose, CA – Santa Clara County Supervisor, Dave Cortese, has announced that he is endorsing Candidate Minh Duong for San Jose City Council District 7. This is a significant endorsement because of Cortese’s prior elected office as Vice Mayor and Council Member on the San Jose City Council.

Says Cortese, “I am proud to endorse Minh Duong for San Jose City Council District 7. Minh is a bright, articulate young man, dedicated to the well being of the city and the people of District 7. We are fortunate to have such an outstanding candidate. It is time to give him a chance to do better for all of us. It is time for a change. I urge all residents of District 7 to vote for Minh Duong for San Jose City Council.”

This is the second major endorsement in less than a week. California Lieutenant Governor Abel Maldonado endorsed Minh Duong last week.

“I am honored and excited to receive the confidence and endorsements of two major elected officials as my campaign gains momentum towards me being elected as the next council member for District 7,” says Duong. “I will work hard to fulfill all the expectations of those leaders who support me and, most importantly, all residents of my district.”
